Naivaiwili, Hawaii, July 30th 1892.

Queen } Burglary, having entered the warehouse vs } of C. H. Bishop, through the door, being Maunaloa " } opened with a key which he has already prepared for the purpose, in the night time during the month of <sup>July 1892 at Kihuna</sup> ~~January~~. He removed from there 2 bags sugar and 1 bag rice, contrary to Chap. 14 of the Penal Code.

Def't pleaded - Guilty.

C. H. Willis sworn:

I am one of the Deputies Sheriff on Hawaii - yesterday I was informed yesterday that this man entered the warehouse of C. H. Bishop and extracted from there 1 bag rice, 1 bag flour, 1 tin Kerosene Oil - and 2 bags sugar - after I received the information one of the Clerks in Bishop's store and myself went to def't's house, and in a small room back of the house we found 1 bag sugar (full) and 1 bag which is ~~half full~~,  $\frac{2}{3}$  full -  $\frac{1}{2}$  bag of rice - no bag flour - nor tin Kerosene Oil - I asked him where did he found those things? and he replied, He got them from the store of Bishop? Q. Did you buy them? A. No. Q. When did you get them?
A. I got them in the night time. Q. How did you get in? A. I get in through the door with a key. - He confessed that he got these things from the store of Bishop - they were found yesterday, July 29th 1892.
